

In 1982, the Executive Office of the President transferred authority for the FEB functions to the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, which today maintains oversight for the FEB program. The FEB responsibilities are outlined in section 960, of title 5, United States Code.

The FEB functions under three lines of business:

- Emergency Preparedness, Security and Employee Safety: the goal is to collaborate on emergency response and readiness and to educate on health and safety issues.
  - Annual COOP Exercise
  - Gateway COOP Working Group Monthly Meetings
  - Severe Weather Plan
- Human Capital Readiness: the goal is to provide accurate, timely and useful information in the areas of recruitment, training and development and retention.
  - Excellence in Government Awards Program
  - Executive Forum
  - Job Fairs
  - Workforce Diversity Council
- Intergovernmental and Community Activities: the goal is to reach out to all governments and the community with initiatives which include:
  - Diversity Awareness Partnership
  - Gateway Combined Federal Campaign
  - Small Business Week
